

JFS 2019 Passover

More and more local residents are turning to Jewish Family Service of Greater New Haven for food assistance - not only during Passover but year round.

You can help families in our local community who are having a hard time providing food for their families by supporting the JFS Food Assistance Program. Your donation will help “all those who are hungry” with traditional food during the holiday and throughout the year.

Let all those who are hungry come and eat with us.
Let all those who are in need
come and share our meal.
